

TECTA AMERICA[®]

ZERO COMPANY

MISSION STATEMENT

The Zero Company is committed to providing customers a roofing experience that exceeds their expectations. We are dedicated to providing quality roof construction, efficient project management, and dependable service for a fair return.

VISION STATEMENT

The Zero Company will be the contractor of choice with our target clients for all roofing, architectural sheet metal and environmental solution projects.

CORE VALUES

- Act in an honest and ethical manner in all we do
- Treat all customers, employees and vendors with dignity and respect
- Actively listen to and consider all points of view in our daily interactions
- Own our mistakes and work to make them right
- Provide an environment that promotes the safety, health and economic well being of our employees and business partners
- Contribute positively to the communities and environment in which we work
- Recognize that profitability is vital to the long-term success and growth of our company
- Promote personal and professional growth of all employees